

Summer Day Camp Counselor Position

Make your summer sizzle with creative writing fun!

Work with the best young creative writers in Central Ohio

Learn from some of the best guest authors, artists, and instructors

Be a Summer Writing Camp Counselor at Thurber House!

Thurber House is seeking qualified applicants for the position of Summer Day Camp Counselor for 2010. Applicants should be 21 years old, love reading and writing, and be mentors to their young campers. College degree in related field preferred. Each counselor is assigned 10 campers they will work with each week. Applicants should have experience working with children and be able to relate to all ages (2nd thru 8th grade). Previous camp experience or teaching experience is a plus. Counselors work up to eight weeks of camp starting June 14 thru August 13 with the week following July 4th off. Background check is required.

If interested in either position, send resume and letter of interest to Pat Shannon, Director of Children's Programming, at pshannon@thurberhouse.org. Applications and resumes for counselor positions are accepted and reviewed until staffing is complete.

THURBER HOUSE

Where laughter, learning and literature meet.